

POST OFFICE LANE Wanaka

EARLY IN THE 1940'S, JOHN KING LEASED THE LIBRARY PADDOCK NEXT TO THE POST OFFICE FOR THE GRAZING OF THE KING'S COW. HAVING THIS COW WAS A NECESSITY TO HELP NOURISH THE 12 KING CHILDREN. THE LIBRARY MINUTES SHOW THAT THE ANNUAL RENT WAS SET AT TWO POUNDS.

JOHN, SITTING DOWN ON HIS STOOL DOING THE MILKING WHEREVER THE COW HAPPENED TO BE, BECAME AN EARLY TOURIST ATTRACTION BECAUSE OF IT BEING RIGHT IN THE CENTRE OF TOWN.

JOHN KING'S MOTHER, "GRANNY KING" WHO WAS THE FIRST WHITE WOMAN BORN AT ALBERT TOWN IN 1868, ALONG WITH WILLIS SCAIFE TURNED ON THE SWITCH FOR WANAKA'S FIRST ELECTRICITY IN 1940 RIGHT OUTSIDE THE POST OFFICE.

ADDING TO THIS HISTORY IS THE APTLY NAMED "THE COW PIZZA & SPAGHETTI HOUSE" WHICH SITS ON THIS LANE. HENCE THE NAME POST OFFICE LANE.
